

A Carolina Christmas

Holiday in Magnolia Bay by Tracy Solheim When Navy SEAL Drew Lanham sees Jenna Huntley rising out of Magnolia Bay, she reminds him of the goddess of the sea, but he has to ignore her sirens call as hes home on a brief leave trying to recover from a devastating mission where he lost a teammate. Jennas more interested in protecting and studying Sea Turtles and building a local hatchery than in men; except when she first locks eyes with Drew, she realizes he just might be the one man who can pull her out of her lab and into his bed to celebrate Christmas Magnolia Bay style. Just in Time for Christmas by Kim Boykin Miranda Hamilton finally has her shot to chair Magnolia Bays biggest Christmas fundraiser, only shes afraid Logan Mauldin, her childhood nemesis is going to derail the festivities when he signs on as her co-chair. Logan has been in love with Miranda since he first saw her in third grade, and when the Christmas festival plans begin to unravel under Mirandas watchful eye, he might finally be able to prove to her that hes the one for her. A Very Married Christmas by Erika Marks Seeing her almost ex husband Beck with a beautiful and much younger woman at the Christmas wedding of her best friend leaves budding cookbook author Marley Ferris feeling more Scrooge than Santa. Pro baseball player Beckett (Beck) Chambers thought that divorcing his childhood sweetheart was a good idea until a day sail to a local island leaves Marley and Beck stranded and spending Christmas Eve together where the unexpected reunion makes them both wonder if this second-chance at love might just prove to be the best Christmas present ever? The Trouble with Christmas by Kaira Rouda Cole Stanton opened his first restaurant on Indigo Island hoping for a fresh start and finally a place to call home, but as Christmas looms, his business struggles.

New pastry chef Lily Edmonds has a plan to rescue Coles dream, as well as mend her broken heart, but as the attraction between them sizzles will the joy of the holiday season bring them together or will the troubles with Christmas push them apart?
