

So Much to Learn

I need to learn, I said in a very small, quiet voice. You have to teach me I faltered here as the whole thing was really just too sordid to put into words. I thought I had a good grasp of the English language, but I had no clue how to put my dilemma to him. Teach you? He prompted. Teach me it! I finally choked out. What happens when you actually like the touching and the the fondling and the it, you know. I had never been so embarrassed in my life. The age old you could have fried an egg on my face adage actually seemed kind of plausible I felt that hot and flustered. But - would you believe it? - Jack still hadn't cottoned on to what I was on about. He looked at me completely blankly and I could almost see his mind whirring as he tried to connect the bits. After a rather hideous break up with her boyfriend due to her inability to put out, Talia bullies her brother's best friend into teaching her the complexities of a full relationship. Turns out uni courses have nothing on life lessons! Please note this story contains some mature language and content.
