

Carrie Miller is in trouble. The curvy bar owner lives in a town constantly under threat from the Aces, a dangerous biker gang currently set on taking Carrie (and her bar) for themselves. Carrie has people to protect, but the odds are stacked against her and she's on her own. That is, until Cage McCann comes back into town, striding into her bar with his dark hair and sapphire eyes and pulling her into a kiss and back into his life. He says he's going to claim and protect her. The only problem? He looks like an Ace. But when his arms are around her, Carrie doesn't care. Cage hates wearing Ace leather and he hates the disappointed look in Carrie's eyes. But the former special forces soldier will do anything to protect the woman of his dreams. Even if that means going undercover in the gang he has hated all his life. He doesn't know when he'll be able to tell her everything, or what she'll say when she finds out he's a bear shifter. But he does know that they are meant to be together, and that he'll never let anything happen to her or anyone she loves. He's been away too long, and now that he's back with his mate, nothing is going to separate them. The Aces may be bad to the bone, but Cage is bear to the bone. And nothing messes with what a bear holds dear.***This is a full length, stand-alone bear shifter novel of around 60,000 words. It contains sexy shifters, sensual, super hot love scenes, thrilling suspense, and pulse pounding action. Enjoy!
