

Beyond the Sea (Shelter Bay) (Volume 9)

From New York Times bestselling author JoAnn Ross, the romance Shelter Bay readers have been waiting for! While in Ireland to bake a wedding cake for movie star Mary Joyce, Sedona meets Conn Brennan, an Irish rock star who refuses to fit into any of her tidy, concise boxes. Unable to deny the sizzling chemistry between them, Sedona rashly throws caution to the winds, forgetting that she's never, ever, been attracted to bad boys. When Conn learns a dark family secret that has stayed buried for over thirty years, the revelation has him questioning nearly everything he's believed about his life. But the one thing that hasn't changed is his intense attraction to Sedona Sullivan, the gorgeous blond American he hasn't been able to stop thinking about. The woman he's destined to spend the rest of his life with. But first he must break through Sedona's formidable defenses and convince her that their romance is much more than a summer fling. And Sedona must decide where her heart truly belongs.
