

Black Evening: Tales of Dark Suspense

Tales of Dark Suspense From the American heartland to the edge of Hell, David Morrell (bestselling author of such classics as First Blood and The Brotherhood of the Rose) has consistently redefined the modern thriller. Now he turns to a darker side of suspense in a powerful collection of tales, many of them award winners. Prefaced by revealing autobiographical introductions, they delve into the weird, uncanny terrors that lurk just beneath the comforting surfaces of daily life. Fear of loss, fear of pain, fear of madness, fear of being trapped, fear of the unspeakable horrors that fester deep within the soul... . No matter who or where you are, fear is always with you, always ready to attack from behind the masks of thoughts and dreams. In this career-spanning examination of his life and the fears we all share, let David Morrell tell you a story ... For These and All My Sins a motorist in need of help finds himself in a town where everyone is disfigured ... and discovers too late the terrifying reason they became that way ... The Beautiful Uncut Hair of Graves Both your parents die suddenly. Going through their legal papers, you find adoption records, dated at your birthday ... but every official document has vanished, along with your biological mother ... Orange Is for Anguish, Blue for Insanity Beneath the placid, beautiful landscapes of a master artists paintings are levels of meaning that hide deep layers of pain ... and unearthly nightmares ... Dead Image You know that that Hollywood stars think fame is more important than life itself ... but you dont realize the half of it ... (Theres a lot of James Dean in this story.) The Shrine Parents grieving for their dead children find a hidden place that offers lost hope ... or eternal madness ...
