

Bound By Temptation (Red-Hot SEALs Novella Book 1)

Bound By Temptation is a 175 page novella (estimated) set in my Red-Hot SEALs world. Dumped and disillusioned Emma Janssens perennial good luck has run dry... First there's the weekend of heated sensuality she shared with Lucas Trammel, followed by three months of humiliating silence. And then there's her testy new home, which is slowly nickel-and-diming her to death. Add in a band of ruthless killers hot on her tail, and her perfect life is in a nasty meltdown. Even so, the very last thing she needs is Lucas racing to her rescue. She's given the man her love once and he's abandoned her. She's not about to let him close enough to hook her heart for a second time. Deadly and dangerous Lucas has been lying to Emma for years. As a special operator with ST7, life has taught Lucas to hold his Navy credentials close to his ballistic vest. It doesn't pay to let civilians know what he does for a living. When one hot as hell weekend threatens to become more than a three-night stand, Lucas takes a giant step back. Emma is the kind of woman a man marries. But she's a civilian. Civilians and black ops don't mix. So he bails on her. He's convinced he's made the right call until he finds out she's in danger. The thought of a world without Emma? Wasn't going to happen, even if that means kidnapping her himself. Driven and Desperate Injured pride is all good and well until it gets you killed... Emma isn't stupid. After narrowly escaping an abduction thanks to Lucas's timely intervention, she accepts his protection. But as the days drag on, and their passion rekindles she finds herself fighting two battles—one against the unidentified killers intent on taking her life, and one against the sexy Navy SEAL determined to steal back her heart.
