

Without a Net (The Santa Monica Trilogy Book 1)

Eva has always played it safe and where has it gotten her? Betrayed by her husband, left alone to raise her young son, and struggling to keep head above water, the last thing she needs is another philandering male. Max has always pursued adventure until he's sidelined by an accident.

While recovering from his injuries, he discovers that the biggest adventure of his life may be closer than he ever imagined in the form of Eva, his baby sister's best friend. The problem? Convincing Eva to risk it all without a net.
