

The Harder They Fall (Blake Pride Series) (Volume 3)

With two newly mated couples in the alpha house, Conall needs a serious breather. Hes used to being the fifth wheel but now the distinction is amplified. When the opportunity for a couple days of freedom arises, he volunteers to take winter supplies to a mountain-dwelling widow and then spend some time hiking alone. Plans change when he meets a woman who evokes his lions protective streak and stirs his human desires. She meets none of his expectations for a mate, but that might be exactly what he needs. Madelyn has been alone for nearly a decade. Ashamed of what she has become, she banished herself from the Blackburn Pack and resigned herself to a solitary life in the mountains. With no plans of change, its alarming when a young, alluring lion shifter arrives awakening her senses and challenging her situation. Her inner bear is still haunted by the last man who tried to claim her and she doesnt want to make the same mistake again. Madelyn must discern if Conall is worth the risk or of hes another heartbreak just waiting to happen. While Conall is tucked away in the woods with Madelyn, the rest of his Pride faces an attack. In haste to go rescue his friends, he might throw the most vulnerable person of all to the wolves. But are they friend or foe?
