

Midnight Confessions: A Novel

A humorous but heartfelt novel perfect for fans of Emily Giffin and Jennifer Weiner. They're taking daytime drama to a whole new level.... When Jenna left her commitment-phobic but otherwise perfect boyfriend, Drew, she hoped he would chase her, not get engaged to someone else. And when she catches the eye of scruffy soap star Mitchell Cole at Drew's engagement party, she can't help but compare the two of them. Mitch is definitely not her type. But Jenna's best friend Kari is nuts about soap operas, and she wants insider details on Mitch's job. Unfortunately, Mitch isn't interested in her; he wants Jenna. So Jenna agrees to go out with him for Kari's sake. After all, he's really not her type. Except he's sweet, funny, and sexy, and even as Jenna tries to keep him at arm's length, she likes him more and more every day. When she thinks she might have a chance with Drew again, Jenna has to decide: Is what she thinks she wants really what she needs?
