

Hate Me Today (Save Me Series Book 3)

Hate is a four letter word. So is life. So is love. Each one requires passion to make it worth it. Jason Jackson has lived his whole life filled with hate. Hate for himself. Hate for his family. Hate for the one person he despises but is stuck on tour with. All he wants to do is rock the crowd and keep his head down, but it seems like every time he turns around, shes doing something else to piss him off. Vanessa Knox knows all about life being too short and refuses to let anyone stand in the way of what she wants. That is, until what she wants is something she knows she shouldnt have. It could break her worse than being sick ever had a chance to. Even though nothing she ever does seems to be right, that doesnt stop her from doing it. After all, sometimes the best things are the one you thought would be the worst. This book contains mature language, emotional situations and adult situations. Recommended for readers 18 or older.
