

Painted Bride (Best-Dressed Series Book 2)

He rolled over on his side, facing her, and took her head in his hands. You're good at way more than pool. I don't know why anyone ever rejected you, but I want to say this up front. No matter who you are, I want you here. You keep talking like that and this'll become real, she replied. He kissed her softly. That's what I'm hoping.

----- Haydn Fabrinni is a spoiled rich boy used to getting his way. But growing up with a silver spoon in his mouth has definite drawbacks, especially when a girl he doesn't like determines to put his ring on her finger. Upset and willing to do anything to get out of it, he makes his rashest choice yet. He challenges a stranger, a woman obviously out to make a buck, to a game with extremely high stakes. If he wins, she agrees to marry him.

Marcy Gregg had a difficult upbringing. After running from her last foster home, she took up pool as a way to survive. But she's not prepared for Haydn's skill at the table, the sparks that quickly bring them together, or the secret of her past that threatens to tear her new life apart.
