 For a limited time, you can get the second book in the Heavenly Bites series for free--visit www.christinesfeldman.com for the details (copy and paste into your browser).  Trish Ackerly never expected to cross paths with Ian Rafferty again, but when she spots the former bully of her childhood years through her bakery window, she thinks she may just have been given the best Christmas gift ever: the opportunity to finally give Ian the comeuppance he deserves. But clearly she does not have a knack for this whole revenge thing, because before she can make good on her plans, Trish gets inadvertently drawn into Ians life in an unexpected way that lets her see just how different the man is from the boy he used to be. In fact, much to her astonishment, she actually starts to like the guy. A lot. Trouble is, Ian doesnt know who she really is, and explaining it to him is going to be a little difficult nowwhich is bad news, because Trish is starting to realize that all she really wants for Christmas this yearis Ian.
