

Pretend (Pretend Series, Book #1)

Sometimes pretend isn't the best game to play especially when you're pretending with your best friend's brother... When April finds out that her boyfriend - of 18 months - has been cheating on her, with her worst enemy, she is heartbroken. Six weeks later, and after a long and depressing summer break, April is ready to move on with her life and face the world again. After finally giving in to her best friend's pleas to attend her sixteenth birthday party, she is more than surprised when her ex shows up with his new girlfriend. Six weeks of hiding and she is finally face to face with her worst nightmare and does the first thing that comes to mind... She lies... In a desperate attempt to prove that she is over him, she pretends to be at the party with her new boyfriend, but there's only one problem... She doesn't have one... Seeing April's dilemma, her best friend's brother, Aiden steps in and plays the role of her new boyfriend for the night, saving her from any further humiliation. But what happens when, what started out as a simple act turns out to be a little more real than either April or Aiden realized? Forced to pretend that she has no feelings for her best friend's brother and fighting off the sudden interest of her now jealous ex, who she is still struggling to get over, April is thrown into an emotional roller-coaster of no return...
