

Reprise (Red Rebels MC Book 4)

Harlon Tiny Gray is the oldest living member of the Red Rebels MC living on the outside, yet hes not the longest-serving member. A long time ago he had started life on a very different path, and the bumps and lumps caused his world to change and put him on the path of the Red Rebels. Mallory Beck played a prominent role in that past life, and shes moved on to her own aspirations as well; mainly, being a singer-songwriter. Shes still at home in Cleary, Colorado playing lead singer to a young bar band when Tiny Gray returns home due to a family crisis. When their paths cross again their attraction and regret are among the many dramas that play out within the violent world of the Red Rebels MC. And a secret that Tiny is harbouring is deciding factor when it all comes to a head.
