

Scarred Asphalt

Beauty and the beast...roles reversed. To handsome for his own good, Apollo falls for a scarred beauty -she doesnt want him or the MC. Will he be her saving grace? Can the beast inside her be tamed before its too late? Seven months after the death of SixGun Outlaw member Alan Stone James, the motorcycle club is trying to rebuild their lives and learn how to go on without their president, friend, and family member. But moving on isnt as easy for Espina Thorne Lopez after having lost her sister. Content to spend her days alone, beating up a punching bag and wallowing in her grief, no one has seen Thorne since. Until shes called in for a favor involving her partners brother. Dalton Apollo Kilpatrick is arrested for something he didnt do, but no one believes him. So the judge puts him on a three month house arrest in the home of the last person who wants him. Will they get along, or will she be a Thorne in his side? Apollo is a handsome man that women cant deny - some would go as far as to call him beautiful. Thorne considers herself a monster - a beast for not being able to stop what happened to her sister. So ... why not put the beauty with the beast and see what happens? Can Dalton repair the crack in her heart before the last petal falls?
