

Woman Bewitched (Gate to Fate Book 2)

When Marti ran from her captors, she never thought someone would kidnap her again mid-escape. When faced with a lunatic who insists she's been living on the wrong world all her life, she refuses to believe him. It's crazy! Yet, when Garrick the Gatekeeper uses the device that he calls a thread locator to drop her on another world, she finds her brother married and showing some long-lost emotion. She can't deny something is definitely up. Have The Fates truly found the one man for her and should she believe that they've gotten things right this time or is the drop-dead gorgeous defender, Kylar, just another one of their mistakes?
