

No holds barred! Sister Hope Morgan had ensured that her daughter Jane had a happy upbringing, and it all seemed worthwhile—until Jane phoned to say that she was marrying Edward, nephew of Mr. Matthew Benedict, pediatric specialist on Hopes ward. Matthew had been a good if reserved colleague, and only now did Hope discover that Matthew had held back because he thought her married. Once he learned she was a widow, he had no such inhibitions—but how could Hope let him closer when the wedding was causing such problems?
